PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On September 28, 2017, Jodi Fiske (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 et seq. (“Vaccine Act”) alleging that she suffered from small fiber neuropathy caused by her receipt of an influenza vaccination on September 29, 2014. ECF No. 1. On August 27, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) Report recommending against compensation. ECF No. 23. On October 20, 2021, an Entitlement Hearing was held before Special Master Oler. On November 13, 2023, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation.¹ ECF No. 79. Respondent now files this corrected proffer regarding the amount of compensation to be awarded.²

² Respondent previously filed a proffer on May 15, 2024, but noticed an error. This proffer corrects that error.

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $98,589.87 for all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).³ Of this total amount, $92,500.00 represents an award for actual and projected pain and suffering and $6,089.87 represents an award for past unreimbursed expenses. Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $98,589.87, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

³ Should petitioner die prior to the entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
